Supreme Court, Appellate Division, Second Department, New York. | November 02, 2016 | 144 A.D.3d 646 | 40 N.Y.S.3d 510

REAL PROPERTY - Agents and Brokers. Seller's real estate agent and broker did not make misrepresentation to purchasers as to purchase price of property, as element of fraud claim.

...Holdings: The Supreme Court, Appellate Division, held that: (1) defendants did not make misrepresentation to purchasers as to purchase price of property, as element of fraud claim; (2) defendants did not make misrepresentation to purchasers as to terms regarding two mortgages, as element of fraud claim; and (3) purchasers did not justifiably rely on any earlier representations by seller's real estate agent regarding mortgage terms, as element of fraud claim....

...Seller's real estate agent and real estate broker did not make misrepresentation to purchasers as to the purchase price of property, as element of fraud claim....

The elements of common law fraud are 1) a false representation of a material fact, 2) with knowledge of its falsity, 3) for the purpose of inducing plaintiffs to act thereon, and 4) that plaintiffs relied upon the representation as true and acted upon it to their detriment.
